TALES OF THE HALL

- ◇ Hear the Apothecaries' stories
- ◇ Be amazed by their myths and legends
- ◇ See the Hall as you've never seen it before
- ◇ Experience spine-chilling thrills

You are all invited, your Masters, Prime Wardens, Upper Bailiffs, Clerks, Consorts, Wardens, Liverymen, all are welcome.

Come as individuals or small groups: three 2019 dates available to start with:

Thursday March 14th    Monday April 15th    Wednesday May 1st

Book a group tour—contact the Clerk to arrange a date

Groups will be limited to 15 people.

Cost per person: minimum donation £10 with all profits going to the Apothecaries' Charity, helping destitute medical students at risk of crashing out of training.

What do you get? Tours will be conducted by the Clerk, Mr Nick Royle, and his wonder dog, Monty. You will tour the Hall, including parts not usually open to visitors, learning more about the Apothecaries' story and their home, finishing with a glass of wine.

Tours usually 5.30 to 6.30 pm, to allow time for the tour if you are going on for dinner afterwards. Dress code "come as you are". Other timings by arrangement.

To book: Contact the Clerk at clerk@apothecaries.org

NB. More academic group tours are available by separate arrangement.
